Welcome to the Loch Awe Coastal Rowing Club, Membership of the club is open to all. To join, please read the information on this sheet, which should be retained. The Declaration Form should be completed and forwarded together with your payment to the Treasurer. Your details will be stored on the club database.

In taking membership you are acknowledging your acceptance of the club rules and specifically:

I understand that all members, guests and visitors of the club use the boat entirely at their own risk and explicitly accept that:

1. Rowing is undertaken at my own risk, and that it is my responsibility to declare myself unfit for rowing if unfit or unwell;
- 2. Life jackets must be worn at all times when afloat and on floating jetties;
3. The club will not accept any liability for any damage to or loss of property belonging to members, their guests or visitors to the club;
4. The club will not accept any liability for personal injury arising out of club facilities, or out of participation in any race or other activity organised by the club (including travel to and from rowing events), whether sustained by members, guests or visitors or caused by the said members, guests or visitors, whether or not such damage or injury could have been attributed to or was occasioned by the neglect, defaults or negligence of any of the officers, committee or servants of the club;
- 5. At least one experienced cox should be onboard and responsible for a club skiff at any time it is afloat. Experienced coxes are officially acknowledged as such by the LACRC committee and designated by an asterisk next to their name/initials on the club's website.
6. A shore safety person in contact with the skiff's cox by VHF should be available.
7. A rowing record form is to be filled in by everybody BEFORE going on the water.

Organisers of a rowing session should;

- Check the weather forecast and tide;
- Check the boat equipment before setting out;
- Report any damage or missing items to a committee member.

Please treat the skiffs and their equipment as though you and your friends had spent hundreds of hours making and painting them. Thank you.

Happy Rowing!
